Fifty-Fifth Year

Sweet Spuds Sworn to Be a Good Plains Crop

G. W. Cox is convinced that sweet potatoes are a very profitable crop for Randall county, and he intends planting about five acres next year.

George got his experience in the sweet potato business in Oklahoma in the early days. His father was an authority on sweet potatoes and planted his rows three feet wide, with the hills three feet part in the rows. When the family moved to Randall county his father continued to plant sweet potatoes, in spite of the fact that many old timers thought they would not do well here.

This year George planted some sweet potatoes in the curb adjoining his flower garden. The rows were a little closer than his father recommended, and the hills were only inches apart. He irrigated the plants four or five times during the dry season.

Here are the amazing results: Mr. Cox harvested his potatoes Friday, following the first freeze and called the Newsman down to witness the yield. He sold 363 pounds of potatoes at $2.75 per bushel. Converted into terms of acres and dollars, the yield would have gone to 13,310 pounds per acre, or a total of $732.05 per acre, if he had raised the larger amount of potatoes. Since his space was limited, he was unable to plant as many potatoes as he desired, or as the experiment justified.

Mr. Cox wants to have it understood that the small patch was no better cared for or no better irrigated than he expects to care for his five acre crop next year. He used Maryland Sweets for his test, which he believes is the best potato obtainable for this section.

His five acre plot will be watched with much interest next year, as this may develop into one of the most profitable industries in Randall county. The hills this year ranged from 16 to 20 potatoes to the hill, and are of excellent quality and size.

Former Pastor Is Named President of Washington College

Rev. Robert W. Jones, who was formerly pastor of the Canyon Presbyterian church, has recently been made President of Washington College, Tenn. As President he is also pastor of the Salem church.

Washington College was founded in 1780 and is a co-educational—self help plan college near Johnson City, Tennessee. Rev. Mr. Jones mentioned that Bob has graduated from high school and "that he is 5'11" in height and Bill is 6'2". He writes, "Maybe Coach Miller will be able to use Bill as a tall Buffalo."

Mr. and Mrs. Jones asked to be remembered to their friends in Canyon.

No Armistice to Be Celebrated by Business Houses

Very few business firms in Canyon will observe Armistice Day in Canyon this year.

A quick survey of the business firms was made Monday by The News, and it was found among the first twenty business houses contacted that none of them intended to remain closed for the day. Not a single one indicated that the holiday would be taken.

Two factors have brought about this change in attitude of not observing the holiday:

First, Armistice Day falls on Saturday. While very few of the larger towns have been observing Armistice Day in recent years, the fact that this day falls on Saturday makes it impossible for a general observation of the day.

Second, since World War I, the nation has been sucked into a much larger and much more destructive war and therefore one day should be set aside for observation. Memorial Day on May 30 has generally been recognized as the proper day for general observation. The fact that Armistice Day comes just a few days before Thanksgiving made it impractical for many business firms to take the day off.

The Legion will hold its annual breakfast on Armistice Day, but this will be the only event of the day in Canyon.

Talent Show Is Opportunity For Youthful Performers

Calling boys and girls of all ages! The second Saturday of the month is almost here. How many of you remember what that means? That's right, the talent show and free movie, a part of the Community Recreation program. Saturday morning at 9:30 in the Olympic Theatre is the time and place, and you are the performers.

Already scheduled for the show this week are several musical numbers including singing, twirling, and tapping. But again this week it looks as if it will be an all girl show, and boys, we mustn't let that happen. Anyone who likes to sing, dance, twirl, tap, give skits or readings, or play a musical instrument, is asked to contact Vergie Haines at 41 or 455W.

Rehearsal time for this week is 4:00 p. m. Thursday in the Olympic Theatre. Clay Cooper is sponsoring the free movie this week.

Those entering the park traveled in 27,037 cars.

McCarty states that attendance has jumped since the three buffalo were placed in the park. Visitors are greatly interested in viewing the buffalo, which gives Mr. McCarty an idea of placing other exhibits in the Park which will be of great interest to the people of this section.

Golden Gloves to Open Fights in Burton Gym Soon

A new district for golden gloves has been set up with headquarters in Canyon, at the Canyon Community recreation office.

This new district is to be called the West Texas District and will include all towns South of Amarillo and North of Plainview. Cecil Massey, director of the Recreation department in Canyon has been appointed director of this new district.

In order to develop boxers in and around Canyon the Canyon Lions Club in conjunction with the West Texas State "T" club will sponsor a city golden gloves meet at a date to be announced later. This meet will be limited only to local boxers. The district golden gloves meet will be held at the college gym Jan. 15, 16, and 17, and will include all boxers in the new district.

Plans are also underway to conduct a boxing school for those boys that have never had boxing experience. Boxing coaches will be there in order to give the boys first hand instructions.

All young boys regardless of age interested in boxing are asked to fill in the entry blank found in this paper or get in touch with Cecil Massey at the recreation department. In order that no boys will have to fight experienced fighters, those who have never fought will be matched with boys of like experience.

Happy Elevator Collapsed As Result of Cracks

A 65,000 bushel unit of the Happy Elevator Company's No. 1 elevator collapsed Tuesday morning about 8:30 o'clock. The elevator was owned by J. O. Parker of Canyon and Pete Whitlow of Happy.

The elevator had cracked last year after construction and had been repaired. A crack showed up in the same spot Sunday and work was started to remove the grain from the elevator.

The collapse came suddenly and without warning.

The insurance company and contractors have representatives on their way to Happy to investigate the unfortunate mishap.

The elevator was completed last October.

Seven men were working around the elevator at the time, but only two were slightly injured.

While the elevator is near the railroad, the elevator fell in the opposite direction and rail traffic was not stopped as a result of the wreck.

Randall Casts Heavy Vote For Guill Tuesday

Only five of the nine boxes had reported Tuesday's election returns to County Clerk T. H. Lair at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning.

Five reporting Tuesday night were Canyon, Ralph, Ceta, Hollywood, Alice Landergin school.

According to these five boxes, Congressman Ben Guill carried Randall county by a majority of 1191 to 868 for Walter Rogers. He had carried four of the five boxes.

In Canyon, Guill led with 611 to 380 for Rogers; and in South Amarillo Guill had 509 to 428 for Rogers.

A complete report by boxes will not be possible for next week.

GOP Wins Many Places Tuesday

The honeymoon is over for President Truman.

During the next two years he must deal with a Congress which is evenly divided, with only a slight majority of Democrats in both houses. No longer will the White House be able to send his program to Congress and demand that it be passed.

The President will probably recall Congress, the lame duck members, back next week, hoping to salvage a part of his wrecked program.

In the vote Tuesday, many of the stalwarts of both the Senate and House fell before the fury of the voters.

Senator Taft, whom the President attempted to defeat, was a heavy winner in Ohio; Tom Dewey won in New York; Governor Warren defeated Jim Roosevelt in California. The new Congress will likely have only one Democratic majority in the Senate, and about half a dozen in the House.

Two Road Jobs Await Plans for Work to Begin

The State Highway Department is waiting on plans for two construction jobs in Randall county according to Guy Lott, division engineer in Amarillo.

The news was informed yesterday by Lott that the state was ready to move in Canyon as soon as the highway problems had been settled. The widening of Highway 87 is holding up this construction.

So far as the Palo Duro State Park road is concerned, Mr. Lott states that plans and specifications were supposed to reach Amarillo from Austin Tuesday afternoon, but they had not arrived. The revised plan for this highway was approved by the attorney general and the State highway department on Monday, according to the Texas State Parks Board. It is probably too late now for a letter on this road during November, but bids will be let at the December letting if there is no further hitches. No further delays are anticipated.

First National Will Let Bank Contract About November 15

Plans for the new building of the First National Bank will be completed this week according to W. C. Black, president. The Board of Directors met with the architects Monday and approved the final draft of the plans.

Brick and steel for the new building have been ordered and according to plans it is hoped that construction will start on the building soon after the contract is let. It is planned to complete the building early in the year and to move to the new building about the first of March, unless there are unforeseen delays.

L. W. Cole has bought the greenhouse which stands on the location and will move it to his new home which is under construction on 7th Avenue.

Building Permits Are Issued for Canyon

Wins Seat in Congress Tuesday

WALTER ROGERS

Walter Rogers of Pampa defeated his next door neighbor in Pampa for Congressman of the 18th Congressional District, and will take his seat in January. Congressman Ben Guill, the only Republican from Texas in the last 20 years was defeated by about 2,000 votes.

Guill took ten of the counties of the district, including his home county of Gray, but Rogers carried the south end of the district, where the voters have always voted the Democratic ticket straight.

The defeat of Guill did not come as a surprise. While he was admired by all citizens for the valiant fight he had put up in Congress and in the district, the voters simply refused to vote for a Republican in spite of his ability.

Rogers has fought through the special election in May in which Guill was elected over 10 Democrats; was second in the July primary; and won the August primary from Alta-vene Clark.

The returns from the district will probably not be completed before Wednesday afternoon, but Rogers has a safe lead.

First Freeze of Season Hits the Panhandle Area

The Panhandle has experienced its first freeze, which hit on Thursday night. The second freeze, with the temperature sagging to a little lower level, came on Friday night.

Running true to form, the Panhandle experienced its first freeze near the first of November. This record has held true in practically all years, according to reports of the weather station at Amarillo.

October experienced very high temperature, with only one light shower in Canyon. This fell on Oct. 2 and amounted to only .25 of an inch. The month was one of the driest Octobers, with the highest temperatures in the history of the weather station. While June, July, August and September were exceptional months for rain, there has been little moisture since Sept. 25. When the freezing weather hit Thursday night, it was accompanied by a trace of moisture which measured only .01 of an inch in Canyon. The total moisture for 1950 measured 22.44 inches up to November 1st.

Local Boys Report For Duty With Armed Services

The boys were drafted for service with the Army.

Monday morning Neal Thurmon, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Thurmon, left Amarillo with a group for service with the Air Corps. The group was being sent to Fort Leonardwood, Missouri.

On Tuesday morning Merle Dickerson, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Dickerson, left to report to Oklahoma City. He is a member of the Naval Reserve and was called to report for further instructions.

EDITORIAL COMMENTS

Mexicans Think the Russians Are Coming to Drink and Gamble

A visitor who just returned from Old Mexico tells of an interesting conversation with tradesmen across the border.

The tradesmen were complaining that Americans were not coming across the border to get drunk and gamble as they used to do. (Perhaps they are staying at home, trying to drink themselves back into prosperity.)

At any rate, this visitor says that he was told that "The Russians are coming to free them from such tragic conditions."

Yes, the Russians will drink their booze and gamble with them, so think the Mexicans.

This reminds one of the threats that we had during World War II. Hitler agents went back to Germany and told the Nazi chieftains that the Negroes of the South were ready to revolt against the government, and thereby upset this government.

Perhaps those Mexicans would make soldiers comparable to the Negroes who were about to revolt.

Plan Now for a Merry Christmas With Better Decorations

Here is just a little plug for the Christmas festivities and Christmas decorations. First thing, let it be remembered that all citizens will have a much merrier Christmas if they do their Christmas shopping in Canyon. Why be pushed around and jostled in a big town trying to do some shopping, which you can do in Canyon?

In the second place, show the Christmas spirit by putting up decorations this year. The supply of decorations is a little better than last year, so everyone can decorate their places of business and their homes.

Let's make this Christmas a more decorative one.

Higher Costs Mean Higher Taxes

One thing has been missing from the campaign just passed. No one has been talking about, or promising lower taxes.

It is a recognized fact that taxes, both local and federal must be higher in order to keep up with the trend of affairs.

We, the people, will have little or no control over the amount of money collected and spent. But we can certainly demand that the federal government cut out prevailing waste and inefficiency in government.

Since we are spending more in Washington than at any other place in the nation, economy must start in Washington.

Double Thanksgiving for Benefit of Football Fans Not Accepted

It is rather amusing to contemplate why Governor Shivers has proclaimed two holidays for Thanksgiving.

Unfortunately authorities who make the football schedule for the University of Texas and A. & M. College, a game always scheduled for Thanksgiving, failed to look at the calendars and see that Thanksgiving falls on November 23 instead of November 30, which is the fifth Thursday in the month.

The football fans sought relief for this error, and prevailed upon the Governor to proclaim two Thanksgiving holidays. The double attraction is not meeting with much enthusiasm, except from those who want to attend the football game. The folks have not forgotten the terrible mess brought about by the double holidays of the Roosevelt administration.

Not even the University of Texas is taking the double holidays. The University will observe Thanksgiving on November 23, which is the day set by law, and will be closed on November 30 only for the football game. Why then should any other Texan feel that he should observe this double holiday?

What, No Politics on This Page of The Canyon News This Week?

No siree, there simply isn't any politics on this page this week.

For weeks we have been pouring out our best words trying to convince the voters that they should support Ben Guill for re-election to Congress. If they didn't feel that way about the election, well and good, just so you went to the polls and voted on Tuesday. That was the main thing.

Lame Duck Sessions Accomplish Small Amount For the People

President Truman is about to call back the lawmakers before the date which was agreed upon before Congress recessed.

This will be another lame duck session. So far as anyone has ever learned, lame duck sessions are about negative in accomplishments.

The President had better wait until the new Congress is ready to start work in January.

Crazy Folks Who Seek to Kill

The crazy idiots who attempted to shoot President Truman are more to be pitied than censured.

Both of the gunmen will pay with their lives, as they should. One paid immediately, and the other will eventually pay. Of course they will be held up as martyrs to the cause of freedom.

They have not yet discovered that in a free nation men do not get freedom by killing other folks, whether he be president or peasant.

The American people are about to lose faith in their leaders, economic, political, social and religious. If this comes about it will be bad for the country.

If you read an editorial with which you agree in toto you may suspect that the editor hasn't done a thorough job in discussing the subject.

Strange as it may seem, there are millions of people in the world today who believe that the United States is bent upon world domination.

Every American can understand a fair fight, without favors asked, but few of them approve underhand tactics, except when on their side.

GI CEMETERIES

General Thomas North, operating head of the American Battle Monuments Commission who has just returned from a five-month tour of the thirteen European sites of American World War II cemeteries, stretching from Cambridge, England, to Carthage, North Africa, announces that all permanent cemeteries will be finally completed by 1955. A fourteenth permanent cemetery, for Pacific war dead is about finished and will probably be turned over to the commission in January.

Old Charlie's successor and his harem. The yearling Buffalo bull, shown above on the ground, and the two cows pictured with him are the new official mascots of West Texas State. They were made available to the school by John McCarty, director of Palo Duro State Park. The smaller of the two cows, pictured in the center, has been named "Susie" for Mrs. McCarty. The other cow, and the bull, will be named by the students of West Texas State.

Cossack Troupe To Sing Here

The husky members of the Original Don Cossack Chorus and Dancers who will appear here on November 17 in the Main Auditorium, under the direction of Serge Jaroff, do not look like the kind of men who would walk through the streets with bouquets of flowers in their arms.

But if you ask them about it, they will blushing admit that it happened.

It occurred recently in Mexico City when the Chorus sang at the Palacio de Bellas Artes, the sacred liturgies and rollicking Cossack folk songs obviously inflamed Latin temperament because by the time the Cossack dancers made their entrance after intermission, the stage was so filled with bouquets thrown by the audience, that the show had to be stopped to clear the platform.

Cossacks appreciate beautiful flowers as much as anyone. After the concert, the booted and bloused Choir members gathered them up in their arms and thought they could escape from the theatre without being seen.

Imagine their embarrassment when they found a tremendous crowd waiting outside the stage door to congratulate them.

As one 200-pound, bass-voiced chorister put it:

"I felt like a blushing ballerina!"

President Truman would have liked to bury the report of Daniel Bell on the financial breakdown in the Philippines. Bell, former Under Secretary of the Treasury, found that immense U. S. aid to the Philippines has largely been squandered, with large-scale graft in the legislature and among high officials. Mr. Truman indicated that he would like to forget it, but pressures to bring the report into the open were too strong.

Gordon Gray, serving as a special adviser to President Truman on policies related to foreign trade, is recommending that the Marshall Plan program and the program for foreign military aid be merged in the year ahead. He would set up a new Foreign Economic Administration to run all of the foreign-aid programs.

Meanwhile, the Government plans to start buying alcohol from whiskey distillers early in December to feed to its synthetic rubber plants. ## Infantry Poorest Paid of All Armed Forces -- Pearson

Drew Pearson is one of the most controversial of all the columnists. He has thousands of warm admirers and thousands of bitter enemies. Most of his columns make a point of stepping hard on many toes—and the more prominent the toes, the better. However, one of his recent items is likely to be given near-unanimous approval. It discusses the bad financial deal the infantry soldier receives, by comparison with his counterparts in other branches of military service.

Writes Mr. Pearson: "Under the current army pay system, the real heroes in the Korean war are drawing the least pay. They don't even get a fair share of the glory when the publicity and medals are doled out."

"These unsung heroes are the infantrymen, who form the army's battering ram, but who are not paid as much as the technical men and pencil pushers behind the lines." He goes on to say that the average monthly pay of a member of a rifle company is $238, as compared with $254 for an air force combat crew man and $171 for a submariner. Combat infantrymen once got a $11 a month bonus, but this is no longer given.

Moreover, according to Mr. Pearson, infantrymen are actually the poorest paid of all the troops in the army. Ordnance, signal corps, artillery and everyone else does better financially. And the ironical part of it is that all these other troops are, basically, simply the infantry's support. They exist for the sole purpose of aiding the infantry in its grim task of closing with and capturing or destroying the enemy. If the infantry fails to do that, the cause is always doomed.

Relatively little stress was placed on the infantry in the so-called New Army we heard so much about a year or so ago. This was to be pretty much the mechanized army, the push button army, in which almost everyone would be a technician of some kind. The Korean war changed that concept, and with a vengeance. It was infantry—the poor, bloody infantry of legend—that fought the delaying actions in the dreadful early weeks. At times the situation became so desperate that service troops had to be given rifles, canteens, and bandoliers of ammunition, and sent into the line as infantrymen. And, finally, it was infantry, Army and Marine, which accomplished the brilliant later successes.

Infantry takes the beating in war. It suffered 36 per cent of the casualties in World War II, perhaps a higher percentage in Korea. Yet Mr. Pearson says in World War II it got only 11.4 per cent of the medals. And, as noted before, it is way down the line at the pay table.

It can be argued that mere money is a small recompense for asking a man to risk his life in war and, at best, live miserably. But it is the only recompense possible—no way exists to make the infantryman's lot an easy pleasant one. It is certainly a reasonable assumption that the footslogger with a rifle in his hands deserves a better break than he is now getting.

WT A Cappella Choir to Broadcast Sunday Over KFDD

On Sunday afternoon at 11:30 the West Texas State A Cappella Choir will broadcast transmitted from station KFDD. This is to be the first in a series of fifteen-minute musical programs sponsored by the music department of West Texas State to be broadcast on Sunday at 11:30. During the series different groups of the department will present a variety of musical selections, both instrumental and vocal.

Three student soloists will be featured with the choir on the program Sunday: Juanita Jo Broadaway, soprano from Panhandle; Joan Shockley, soprano from Amarillo; and D. P. Walker, tenor from Amarillo.

This year there are 56 voices in the choir under the direction of Houston Bright. New voices for the group are expected to arrive during the month.

Nov. 4-12 National 4-H Achievement Week

November 4 through November 12 is designated as National 4-H Achievement Week. The local Extension Service Agents, Lou Ellis Patterson and E. E. Shahan, report that the Gold Star girl and Gold Star boy for Randall County for 1949 are Mildred Bryan of Fairview 4-H club and Doyle Bourn of Canyon 4-H club. Each will receive a gold pin from A. — M. College.

Mildred has been an active 4-H club member for five years. She prefers cooking to other homemaking activities and has done more in food preparation and gardening than she has done in other fields. However, she is learning to sew and has been in two dress revues. She and her sister Billie have completely worked over their bedroom. She has served her club two years as president and served on the county 4-H girls' advisory committee.

Doyle has been an active 4-H club member for five years. Doyle started his 4-H club work in the swine program and has won several high honors in the swine program at Canyon and at the Tri-State Fair in Amarillo.

He is also interested in calf feeding. He had the Grand Champion calf at our county show one time and has placed in the Amarillo shows for the past three years.

Doyle also enjoys recreation and sports. He has been on the county 4-H rifle team for three years. The team won second in the state in 1949 and first in 1950.

Bufs Have Week Off Before Vital Game on Nov. 18

The Bufs are still the top football team in the nation so far as yardage is concerned. By winning their fifth Border Conference game Saturday against Texas Western at El Paso, the Bufs increased their offensive record from 455.7 yards per game to an average of 457.8 yards.

The team was given a much deserved rest on Monday, but came back to the field Tuesday to start on the hard grind to get ready to meet Hardin-Simmons University at Abilene on Nov. 18. No game will be played this week, thus giving the herd two weeks in which to prepare for the game. H-S will meet Texas Western at El Paso this coming Saturday.

The herd will win nothing less than a tie for the Border Conference title. By winning from H-S the Bufs would hold undisputed first place of six wins and no losses in the conference.

The Buffalo Band and a large number of local fans will accompany the Bufs on their trip to Abilene.

Recent visitors in the W. G. Boston home were Howard Boston and family of Boston.

GOLD RUSH

Fishermen Hit It Rich

CORDOVA, Alaska — Alaska's crab fishermen have struck it rich — a $300-a-day bonanza.

The strike is as rich as any of the lucky old-time sourdoughs early day gold findings.

"A yarn that a couple of men were making $300 a day in a new gold strike would arouse terrific excitement," Clarence Martin, Cordova Times publisher reports. "Yet the crab fishermen are making that kind of money—and it is just as good as if it came in nuggets."

Cordova is one of the big producers of canned and frozen crab. The species is known on the Pacific coast as the Dungeness. But until recently all of the Cordova area catch was taken from Prince William sound, adjacent to the town.

Catch 3,000 a Day
Because the sound's crab beds always supplied enough of a catch to make a good living for the fishermen, few of them ever ventured outside.

It was during the closed season in the sound that a venturesome fisherman decided to try his luck in the Gulf of Alaska—the vast body of north Pacific water that washes the breadth of Alaska's southern coast.

He put out his traps and brought in a first day's haul of 3,000 crabs. A Cordova packing plant paid him 15 cents a crab—$450 for his day's efforts.

Some half a dozen fishermen were working the same area, each with from 100 to 150 traps. After several weeks of fishing, the boats continued to bring in from 1,800 to 2,500 crabs each. Small boats are manned usually by a man and a boy, or by two men at most, so the daily take has been running $150 to $200 each.

Since the fishermen already had the traps for the Prince William sound fishing, just about the only additional expense is for the bait and the boat operation.

Processors Earn Big Pay

The men and women who process the crab meat are making big money, too. The packing plant crab 'shakers'—they literally shake the meat from the shells—are the elite of the packing crews. A skilled 'shaker' can remove about 450 pounds of meat a day. At nine and a half cents a pound, that's $42.75 for a day's leg shaking.

All this is happening in a season when the crab catch has been slim in such normally happy hunting grounds as Washington state coastal waters.

Cordova fishermen believe they have tapped a vast storehouse of crab meat, and that they have only touched the edges.

Another Fallacy Revealed, Rabbits Don't Like Carrots

CLEVELAND, O.—Br'er Rabbit doesn't have a yen for carrots—another fallacy falls apart, so scientists report.

In tests with a new rabbit repellent Br'er Rabbit showed so little interest in carrots that the researchers discontinued using the food. Far more popular were beans, lettuce, corn, tulips, daffodils and hyacinths.

In tests at the University of Florida the new repellent greatly reduced the amount of damage in vegetable and flower gardens. Cotton-tails that nibbled at and damaged 80 to 100 per cent of the lettuce plants in untreated patches, steered clear of lettuce that had been sprayed or dusted, the scientist reported.

Newest of Heavy Metals Not so Heavy After All

CHICAGO—The discovery of a new metal, much lighter than expected, has been announced by Dr. Edgar F. Westrum of the University of Michigan. The metal is americium.

Plutonium, the modern atom bomb element, is the universe's ninety-fourth element and he heaviest substance among the ninety-eight elements known. Americium, just obtained in its silvery metallic form, has only about half its parent's density.

This means that even though americium's atomic weight is greater than that of plutonium, two bricks of americium would be necessary to counterbalance one of equal size made of plutonium. This is because inner forces give the americium atom a more expanded structure.

Housewives Donate Curtain Rods to Korea War Effort

KOREA—The lowly curtain rod has gone to war.

Occupation housewives in Japan threw their curtain rods into the air war against North Korea when a critical shortage developed in the supply of pipes necessary to extend fuel lines to the large wing-tip tanks to give the jets extra time over the target area.

The demand was met by stripping dependents' homes of tubular Japanese manufactured rods, which happened to meet exactly the Air Force requirements.

"It cuts down a little on our privacy," one Air Force wife said. "But this isn't a private war, either."

Whale

Hitchhikes a Ride

PEBBLE BEACH, Calif.—The near catch of the year was made recently by Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Campbell. A 30-foot whale hitchhiked a ride on their yacht.

The Campbells were sailing their cabin cruiser off Pebble Beach when the whale plopped itself aboard, nearly sinking the craft.

"We were watching a school of fish playing around the boat when a gigantic wave rose just ahead," Mrs. Campbell said. "My husband was at the wheel. I braced myself against the side of the cabin and thought, 'This is the end.'"

Then they felt a "terrible impact."

"It was like a complete blackout," Campbell said.

The Campbells looked out the window and saw the whale twisting on the deck.

"We couldn't judge how long it was on the boat because it flopped off right away," Mrs. Campbell said.

During its brief visit the whale splintered the stern deck, ripped an awning with its tail, smashed a bulwark in front of the cabin and ripped up the port side deck.

Dane Spent 20 Years In Asylum by Mistake, Finally Declared Sane

TOPEKA, KAS.—John Crabb, 59, who spent almost 20 years in a Kansas mental institution "by mistake" has been released and has returned to his native Denmark.

He was released after intercession by a group of Danish insurance men who brought the matter to the attention of state authorities. L. P. Ristine, superintendent, said there is every indication that Crabb never was insane.

"He was a victim of circumstance," he said.

Crabb's long imprisonment was attributed to his lack of knowledge of this country, his inability to speak the language clearly and to his fiery temper and determination to prove his sanity.

He had lived in this country almost 20 years at the time of his imprisonment. At the time he was taken into custody he was a dish washer in a restaurant. Co-workers scoffed because he worked while standing on crutches necessitated by a foot injury.

The undercurrent of resentment flamed when one of the workers made advances toward a waitress for whom Crabb had an affection. Crabb threatened the man and was taken to jail.

There he became despondent and refused to eat. Police referred his case to the state hospital. Crabb insisted he did not belong in the institution. He refused to work and failed to co-operate in his effort to prove his point. At one time he was listed as incurably insane.

Relatives, including a nephew in Denmark, fought for his release without success. They enlisted the help of a Topeka insurance group as a last resort. Crabb was finally declared sane, but it took almost 10 months to complete necessary arrangements for his release.

When he was released he flew to New York and took a boat to Europe.

"I'm not resentful," Crabb said as he left the hospital in a new suit provided by a group of Danish insurance men, "I'm just glad to get away."

Gold Field Worked Since Bible Days Still Producing

GRANADA, Spain—The world's oldest known source of gold is still producing the precious metal.

Thirty-six prospectors are still panning the Rio Darro in southern Spain. The river's sands have been producing since Nebuchadnezzar reigned in Chaldea and were already old when Tutankhamen ruled in Egypt.

The takings are modest today, a week's work will yield only the equivalent of a day's salary for an office worker. The dust is used by Granada's jewelers.

The gold is referred to in the Bible with praise for its fine quality and is the Tharsis gold of the Greeks. The river's burden of gold was exploited by Iberians, Carthaginians, Romans, Vandals, Visigoths and Moors.

Soldier Loses Papers, Army Can't Decide on His Rank

KOREA—George Adrian of the First cavalry division is all mixed up. He doesn't know whether he is a lieutenant, a sergeant, or a corporal.

A mortar platoon commander in the Pacific in World War II, he was discharged as a lieutenant. He left the University of South Carolina to re-enlist—as a sergeant. But he lost his papers. The adjutant general ordered him reduced one rank until the papers were found.

That brought Adrian up to the Korean war—and Korea, where he is with a heavy mortar outfit, as a corporal.

Now Corporal Adrian hears from home that he may become an officer again—just as soon as he is recalled to active service.

Wedding Feast at Cana

Christ (portrayed by Millard Coody) and the Virgin Mary (portrayed by Darlene Bridges) as Christ turns water into wine. Scene is from the unusual religious film, "PRINCE OF PEACE" coming to Canyon on Tuesday, November 14th for a two-day run at the Varsity Theatre.

Final arrangements have been made for the showing in Canyon of "THE PRINCE OF PEACE," new Hallmark Productions, Inc. cine-color release on the life of Christ.

It will open at the Varsity theatre on Tuesday, November 14th for two days only.

Based on the famous Lawton, Oklahoma Easter pageant held annually in the Wichita mountains near Lawton, the feature combines a realism of setting with an unusual and deeply effective sincerity on the part of the 3000 Oklahomans who take part in the film.

It is because "THE PRINCE OF PEACE" is so tremendous in scope and so human in its theme that this film has been breaking boxoffice records from coast to coast. Its glorious and thrilling musical score and strong sermon on film has caused clergymen of every faith and educators at all levels to call the film the most important motion picture ever to come out of Hollywood.

At the time when the threat of an atomic war hangs over the world and the future of many people seems dark and hopeless "THE PRINCE OF PEACE" comes as a ray of light to bring new confidence and faith for those who see it. A new and deep understanding and appreciation for the age-old story of Jesus is revealed. A non-sectarian film, people of all faiths, colors, and creeds will find a personal message in this remarkable film.

Playing the role of Jesus in the film is Millard Coody, a Lawton bank teller. Darlene Bridges, a housewife of Lawton, and mother of two children, is seen as the Virgin Mary. The entire pageant cast, numbers close to 3,000 people, are non-professional actors and actresses who portray in this unusual film, the same roles they play every year in the actual Easter pageant. One man, A. S. (Del) Fisher, head of the Ordinance department at Fort Sill Army base near Lawton, has been playing the same role of the Apostle Peter for 24 years in the famous Easter play. He is seen in the film both as himself, in the modern story treatment, and in this same role of Peter in the religious scenes.

RECORD 'CHUTE LEAP

The jump which Air Force Capt. Richard V. Wheeler, of Waterfront, Mass., made from a height of more than 8 miles is believed to have set a new world's parachute drop record—exceeding by about 2,000 the record of 40,200 feet set by Col. W. R. Lovelack 3rd, in June, 1943. Capt. Wheeler jumped 42,440 feet. This also surpassed the recent jumps of Capt. Vincent Mazza, of Naperville, Ill., who jumped from 42,213 and 41,586 feet.

HATCHERIES

The Agriculture Department has announced that chick output during September was the largest on record for that month, when 71,373,000 chicks were produced. This compares with the previous record September, of 1941, when 54,791,000 chicks were hatched. Total production for the first nine months of 1950, however, is two per cent less than in a similar period of 1949.

Mr. Truman is being pictured as determined to whittle down the size and functions of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation—the Government's big loan agency—or else to get it even more closely under control of the White House. RFC now is run by a board that is supposed to be independent, politically.

Draft of married men definitely is being put off until after election and may be avoided then. An order opening the way for local boards to take married men, up to age 26, has been drafted for some weeks but is kept on the shelf. The draft is proving no more popular politically this year than it has in the past.

Paul Popenoe, of the American Institute of Family Relations: "Movies show teenage lovers to be just moonstruck morons, when actually they are smarter than the old folks in the love department."

Leon Keyserling, Chairman of the Council of Economic Advisers, gains in influence as adviser on which controls to use, and when, to govern U. S. business.

Charles F. Kettering, official, General Motors Corporation: "One of the things we have to be thankful for is that we don't get as much Government as we pay for."

Leon H. Keyserling, chairman, President's Council of Economic Advisers: "In terms of real dollar value, the nation has reached an all-time peak of peace-time prosperity."

Maj. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, Selective Service Director, finds that the White House prefers a policy of silence on a more intensive draft, at least until after the elections.

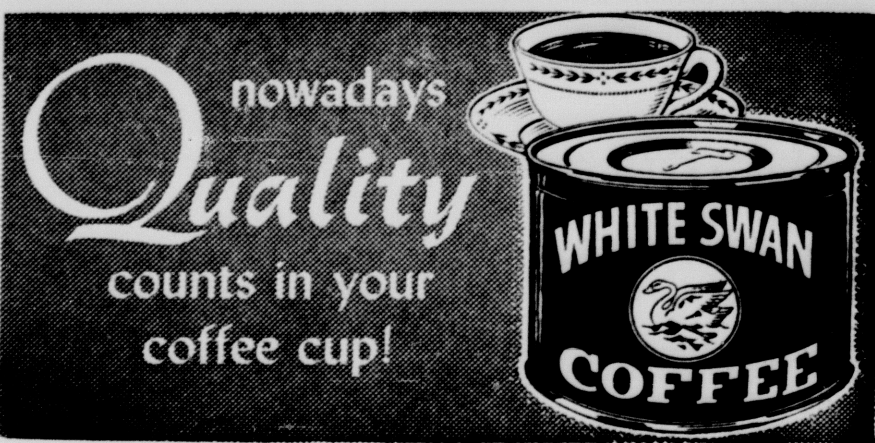

Frank Buchanan, Member of Congress from Maryland: "Influencing legislation is an activity that should be carried on in a goldfish bowl."

Witch Way Will He Go Now?

Pandit J. Nehru, India's leader, who enjoys telling the world how it should be run, cannot as yet figure how to get along with neighboring Pakistan.

Andrei Y. Vishinsky, Russian delegate to United Nations: "In the absence of agreement among the five powers, peace will always remain in a shaky position."

Are Our Texas Highways
Being Destroyed by 1% of Highway Users?

This question is presented squarely for the first time by the Texas Tax Journal in its booklet, "The Case of the One Per Centers."

Every Texan who wants good highways, adequate for 99 of every 100 users, should write for a free copy of this revealing booklet.

Approximately 99% of all Texas motor vehicles are registered for a gross weight of 20,000 pounds or less.*

All Texas taxpayers, including your Texas Railroads, have reason to be concerned about the high cost of constructing and repairing our highways and the prospect of building more costly roads made necessary by the operation of highway "box cars."

No one has any desire to bar vehicles of reasonable size from our highways, so long as each pays its fair share of construction and repair costs.

Other Texas taxpayers should not be required to shoulder the burden of a roadway system for highway "box cars", representing only 1% of highway users.

Every Texan interested in good highways without increasing the growing tax burden should fill out the coupon below and get a copy of this valuable booklet.

Tyson Chosen 'Sun Princess' In Close Balloting

Maxine Tyson, petite 17-year-old freshman from Maple, Texas, was chosen as West Texas State's Sun Princess in student voting during Thursday's assembly.

As part of her duties as Sun Princess, she will form part of the Royal Court for the Sun Queen, who will reign over all activities of the New Year's Day festivities in El Paso. Sun Princesses are chosen not only for looks, but for maturity, poise and personal charm, which will enable her to better represent her school.

The biggest Sun Carnival in history is planned for this year. The Carnival committee has planned a big pageant in connection with the Coronation of the Queen and the Coronation Ball, which is to be staged in El Paso's beautiful Coliseum. The Coronation, Pageant, and Ball will be Thursday night, December 28. Friday, December 29 is reserved for the El Paso Symphony Concert, and Saturday, December 30 is the gala Street Carnival and Dance.

Tennis tournaments and basketball games will round out the five days of gaiety, with the Sun Carnival "Mythology" Parade and the Sun Bowl Football Classic on January 1, climaxing the celebration.

Miss Tyson's expenses will be paid by the Student Senate and the Sun-Bowl officials. She is a freshman, 5 feet 6 inches tall, has brown hair and eyes, and weighs 125 pounds. Maxine is majoring in Secondary Education.

Five other candidates were entered in the contest. These were: Jo Parker, Happy freshman; Bettye Laminack, Floydada freshman; Dorothy McCasland, Tulia sophomore; Shirley Morris, Vega junior; and Suzanne Owens, Canyon sophomore.

Senator Walter George, chairman of the powerful Joint Committee on Internal Revenue, has been under strong union pressure to hold open hearings on the subject of corporation profits to provide labor leaders with political ammunition. The Senator, with a campaign on his hands, hasn't been able to find time.

Philip Murray, CIO president, is annoyed with Walter Reuther, head of CIO's Auto Workers, because Reuther has settled for 10 cents an hour additional for auto workers. Murray wants at least 15 cents an hour more for Steelworkers, but finds that employers keep referring to the 10 cents that Reuther accepted.

Allan Haywood, CIO vice president, is being given so many honors by President Murray that friends of Reuther wonder if Murray is building Haywood to take the top CIO job when Murray retires. Reuther has taken it for granted that the top job some day would be his.

A.A.U.W. Speaker Appeared Sunday At Local Church

On Sunday evening, November 5, the Canyon Branch of the American Association of University Women presented Dr. Nell Knottenbelt in a talk at the Presbyterian Church.
Dr. Knottenbelt, one of 49 young women from abroad studying in this country on grants from the AAUW, gave a most graphic description of student life in Dutch universities before and since the war. One point she made illuminates perfectly the change in attitude brought about by the sufferings of the war. Dr.
Knottenbelt said that before the war, "freedom" meant the students' right to criticize the government in any way; since then it means the right to work freely and openly together to support the government because it is their own.

After the talk, an informal reception was held in the church parlors to give the audience a chance to meet the speaker. Mrs. Linnie Harter and Miss Jean Moore were co-chairmen in charge of general arrangements for Dr. Knottenbelt's visit and for the reception. The decoration committee consisted of Miss Sarah Thompson, Miss Albessa
Stephenson and Mrs. Gladys Dixon.
Those in charge of refreshments included
Mrs. Cliff Milnar (tea table),
Mrs. Cecil Simms, Mrs. Harry Ford,
Miss Ruth Cross, Mrs. Dan Sanders,
Mrs. Alexander Mack, Mrs. Mary Sligar, Miss Jane Darland, Miss
Katie McCluney, Mrs. A. K. Goodman,
Mrs. John Davis, Mrs. Mary
Black, Mrs. Dan Usery, Mrs. L. M.
Cousins. Assisting at the tea table were Dr. Leta Boswell, Mrs. Winston Wilbanks, Mrs. R. A. Nebbett and Miss Agnes Charlton. Assistant hostesses included Mrs. Dan Usery, Miss Linnie Babston, Mrs. W. A.
Moore, Mrs. Ethel Shaw, Dr. Ina
Barlow, Mrs. T. V. Reeves, Mrs. Dorthea Walker, Mrs. Virgil Martin and Dr. Ruth Lowes. The guests were greeted by Mrs. Ples Harper, president of the Canyon Branch of the AAUW, Dr. Hattie M. Anderson, fellowship chairman for the Texas Division, Miss May Jones, Stephenville, Texas, State President of the AAUW and the guest of honor.

The regular monthly meeting of the AAUW was held Monday, November 6 at 7:30 with Mrs. Ethel Shaw and Mrs. Dan Usery as co-hostesses. The various study groups met for a short discussion. Following this, a business meeting was held, and the meeting closed by serving light refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Joyner spent the week-end in El Paso attending the West Texas-Texas Western football game Saturday night and visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs.
L. H. Creed and son Walter.

Arson Is One of Worst Crimes of Entire Nation

Arson is one of the most despicable of all crimes. And it is a crime which must be continually fought by specialists who know the arsonist and his ways.

The National Board of Fire Underwriters, for example, employs a team of 100 arson-detection experts. Their chief was head of the FBI during World War I, and more than a third of them are former members of the FBI. In all cases, they work in close cooperation with local fire and police departments.

Their major successes include breaking up a Chicago arson ring which set over 60 fires, destroyed $3,000,000 worth of property, and killed two people in the process. Twenty-two convictions were obtained. In another instance, they got the goods on a broker who induced his chauffeur to set fire to his palatial home and used the insurance money to recoup stock market losses. The indictment was obtained just 24 hours before the statute of limitations would have blocked action. Arrests for arson in which the National Board squad has participated have averaged two a day for every working day over the past five years.

This fight against arson benefits everyone. The honest policyholder, obviously, loses when insurance money is obtained in a crooked manner—the insurance rate is based upon losses. Far more important, the arsonist always imperils the life and property of innocent people. And the arson gangs made up of professionals, represent crime of the worst type.

The way to reduce arson fires is to make it plain that the crime doesn't pay. That's what the National Board squad, working with law enforcement authorities, is doing.

SHOWER COMPLIMENTS BRIDE, MRS. CLIFFORD PRICHARD

On October 27 Mrs. Clifford Prichard, nee Eva Ann Rowe, was complimented with a bridal shower in the basement of the First Baptist Church. Charlotte Penn secured names at the guest book. Tommie Ann Taylor gave a reading on how to cook a husband. Faye Ann White played "Somewhere Over the Rainbow" on the piano.

Refreshments of spiced tea, home made cookies and mints were served. Darlene Edmonds poured the tea. Guests were members of the honoree's school class.

NEW ENGLAND ECONOMY

Near a small Cape Cod village a tourist came upon a charming cottage set like a jewel in the midst of green, rolling lawn flower beds and stately shade trees. The dwelling was freshly painted white and set off by bright green blinds, while tastefully arranged upon its broad veranda were hammocks, easy chairs, and brilliant sofa pillows, all the adjuncts of summer comfort.

"Whose place is that?" the traveler inquired.

"That," his guide casually rejoined, "is the poorhouse."

"The poorhouse!" exclaimed the astonished tourist, "You must have some mighty fancy paupers."

"We ain't got but one," the guide replied, "and she's an old woman. The overseers board her out with one of the neighbors, and let the poorhouse to some Boston swells for the summer. And that, sir pays all her keep!"

RUGGED GAL

Never having worn a pair of shoes in her life, the mountaineer's feet were tough as leather. Her husband, stretched out on the cabin floor, watching her stir the fire in the fireplace, laboriously lifted a hand to remove his corncob.

"Maw" he said, "best move yore foot. Thar's some live ashes under it."

She kept on stirring. "All right, Henry, which foot?"

Railroads Enter Protest Against Destruction Hiways

An advertisement in this issue of The News is timely and to the point. The highways of Texas are being destroyed by a small percent of the big trucks which have been turned loose to destroy at will.

When the Newsman was in the legislature a bill was passed limiting the load of trucks to 7,000 on plea of the State Highway Commission. A few years ago the truckers demanded a heavier load, and one member of the State Highway Commission appeared stating that the highways were being built to carry a 20,000 load. At that time the legislature compromised on 15,000 pounds, which has since been increased.

The people of Texas build the highways, the railroads build and maintain their own tracks; yet the big trucks are destroying the highways.

It isn't fair!

THUMBNAILED!

Out in the Indian Nation many years ago an official from Washington was holding a pow-wow with a group of Comanches. The old chief broke in upon the deliberations with a resounding speech.

Believing like a bull, and wildly gesticulating, he proclaimed that, from the beginning of time down to the present, the Comanches, by reason of intrepid courage, had been set above all men. For more than an hour he embroidered upon this theme.

Presently, panting mightily from his supreme effort the chief sat down, whereupon the interpreter, a runty little halfbreed arose, jerked a thumb at the gasping orator, and delivered himself thus:

"This guy, he says he ain't afraid of nobody!"

EVIDENCE TO THE CONTRARY

The boss of the shipping department was bustling along about his duties when he sighted plump George, one of his workers, gazing blankly out the window.

Irrked, the boss confronted staturesque George and said: "Listen, fellow! Don't you know you'll never get anywhere by just standing around?"

"Oh, I don't know," George said. "Did you ever ride an escalator?"

Dr. J. W. Hunt, president of McMurry College, will speak at the Armistice Day program.

Retailers Oppose Rationing Under Present Setup

Representatives of American retailing have told officials of the National Production Authority that they are opposed to rationing and wage-price controls at the present time.

The retailers of this country, both large and small, can vividly remember their experience under OPA after the last war when, with the real emergency over, controls were continued for a long time. Production was discouraged, and stocks were sparse. The black market flourished, serving the few who would pay outrageous prices for goods.

Rowland Jones, president of the American Retail Federation put the case against controls in these words: "Americans need not blindly submit to the prospect of the economic straightjacket of control regimentation based on the assumption that we are already at our maximum in terms of production and available manpower. We do have a choice if we have the will and the wisdom to work together to push our production to ever higher levels unshackled by the defeatist idea that there are no more production frontiers to cross."

American labor, American business and American agriculture can produce all the goods and services we need for both military and civilian use. American retailing can, as it has always done, take care of the complex job of distribution. All this can be done without dangerous controls which would regiment the economy and weaken our strength as a nation. We cannot successfully oppose the dictators by going in for dictatorship at home. If we do, we admit that freedom and representative government are failures.

Secretary Marshall, of the Defense Department, is letting Robert A. Lovett, Under Secretary, run the Department while he concentrates on issues of broad military policy as it affects individual services and co-operation with allies.

They proved she shot her husband at close range, because there were powder marks on him. She contended there were powder marks on him beforehand, and that's why she shot him.

Thomas E. Dewey, Governor of New York: "I don't believe a man should be nominated more than twice for President of the United States."

Spokesman for Federal Reserve Board: "We've got a job of curbing inflation and it can't be done without treading on somebody's toes."

Korea Is Being Used as Excuse For Controls

Is the current world crisis being used in an attempt to effect far-reaching and permanent changes in the American economy and the American government? A good many people have reluctantly come to the conclusion that the answer to that question is "yes." The Saturday Evening Post reflected that point of view when it said editorially, "If there is considerable suspicion around that Korea is intended to be the grave of the American free economy, the fault is surely the administration's. An administration which has moved heaven and earth to bring about the adoption of all sorts of semi-socialistic measures . . . can hardly complain if some people smell a rat. The temptation to use the Korean war as a pretext for permanent changes in our economy is real enough, and there are plenty of planners in the government departments who are eager to yield to it."

Since that was written the Korean war situation has changed enormously, but the temptation the Post described still exists. As a specific example, take economic controls—rationing, price-fixing, allocations, etc. The President has been given stand-by powers in this direction which, in some respects, are even more sweeping than those of the OPA era. Whether the powers shall be invoked in whole or in part is wholly within Executive discretion. So far, he has activated but few of them, such as the highly controversial restrictions on residential construction and installment purchasing. Yet the feeling grows that there is no proof of need—and that, indeed, the proof lies principally on the other side.

Going on, the fear is not so much for the possibility of temporary controls, which, as with OPA, would die with the emergency. It is, instead, that these controls would gradually be accepted by the people as a natural state of affairs and become a permanent part of the economy. And should this happen, it is clear, a completely controlled and largely - socialized economy would become inevitable.

David Lawrence put the situation in these words: "We are at the crossroads of decision. Shall the American economy gear itself for war by a system of voluntary co-operation or by a system of government coercion? The one road leads to nationalization and government ownership, as in Great Britain. The other road leads away from it—to the kind of cooperation between government and industry which preserves the principle of individual freedom, individual ingenuity and individual incentive."

Mr. Lawrence then proposed a two-point solution to the problem. First, he said, there should be a public conference between top officials of government and top executives of industry, at which the latter would be informed of our military needs and instructed as to priorities. Second, conferences should be held among management and labor groups for the purpose of discussing and explaining the dangers of inflation and reaching decisions on how to combat them.

Here is the voluntary approach, as opposed to that of coercion and dictation. Mr. Lawrence's last paragraph can be profitably studied by all concerned—management, labor, government and the consumer: "Self-restraint arising out of acute pressure to preserve the nation itself can—when the dangers are thoroughly understood—work economic miracles."

WHAT'S THE USE

A farmer had a son at college. At the end of the first year the son came home in high feather. He stood second in his class.

"Second?" said his father, "Second! Why didn't you stand first? What do you think I'm sending you to college for?"

The young man returned for his second year, determined to win first place. At the end of the year he returned home and announced his success to his father.

The father looked at him for a few minutes in silence, then shrugged his shoulders, and said "At the head of the class, you? Well it can't be much of a college after all."

Chicago school janitors are said to get more than the teachers, but that only means they are promised more.

When we read the stories about always imagine the groom looked

We are more discontented from

"Sacrifice" Is Overworked By High Officials

One of the most overworked words in the current American lexicon is "sacrifice."

Practically everyone in a high position in the government has felt it necessary to stress the need for sacrifices on the part of the people.
Thus, the President recently said,
"The farmer, the wage earner and the businessman must each be satisfied to work more for the good of all and to make a little less for himself."

"In return, your government will do its best to see that the necessary sacrifices are equally shared and that the common effort brings the maximum return in world strength for the cause of freedom."

Those are splendid words. But the fact remains that many men in the government seem to have a warped idea of what sharing sacrifice involves.

A relative few are really making sacrifices now. Those who fought in Korea have sacrificed. Those who died there made the ultimate sacrifice. The young men who are being called from home and school and the beginnings of careers into the armed services have a right to speak of sacrifice, for they are examples of it.

The rest of us are not sacrificing anything. We are paying higher taxes, it is true—but that is simply an unpleasant burden, not a sacrifice. We are living well, and we are following our daily routine pretty much in the normal manner.

And our government officials, sad to relate, seem determined to sacrifice nothing.

The record speaks for itself. Men in top positions—in the face of the tremendous military emergency that has been forced upon us—continue spending-as-usual in all directions.

They are urging a plan for compulsory government medical insurance which would cost $6,000,000,000 or more a year, and which would open the door to socialized medicine.

They are urging an agricultural scheme, the Brannan plan, whose cost is beyond estimate, and which would have to be paid for by the farmers and everyone else.

They are continuing their efforts to break up some of our larger enterprises—including industries which are most necessary to the national defense and to the prosecution of a war if war should come again.

They are continuing their efforts to socialize America. The attacks on the light and power industry are the most outstanding example of this. If these men are successful, this great industry will be absorbed by government at tremendous cost to all the taxpayers, and run by gureaucrats—despite the provable fact that the industry is completely able to meet any conceivable demand for service, at the lowest possible cost.

The record could be continued indefinitely. It is one thing to talk easily of sacrifice. It is another to actually make a few sacrifices, no matter how mild they may be. So far the service men and their families are the only ones who sacrifice.
When will the politicians set some sort of example in government?

Kenneth Artho, Ed Grabber with William Wieck.

showers every morning just do so to brag about it.

BOYCE HOUSE Gives You Texas

Recently, the nation was supposed to observe "Write a Letter Week."
Just write a letter about anything to anybody. This "week" was about the silliest one yet.

If those who proclaim these weeks want to do something worthwhile, why not proclaim a "Read a Book Week," or, even better, "Read a Boyce House Book Week." That would be the greatest boost to literature since Shakespeare wrote his sonnets!

Advertising placard in a Dallas street car:
"Dallas, the Hospitable City—

Blank Undertaking Co." That really is carrying hospitality to an extreme!

When Dallas was naming its bowl, what a splendid pun was passed up in not calling it the Cotton Bowl.

An acquaintance tells of being a guest in a club some years ago and seeing a multi-millionaire oil man feed half dollars into a slot machine for an hour. If all the fun that a multi-millionaire can find is to work the lever of a "one-arm bandit," it hardly seems worthwhile to put so much of one's life into getting rich.

Speaking of money—
In St. Louis recently, in a museum, I saw a "piece of eight." You will recall that in "Treasure Island," the seekers were looking for pirate loot which was a chest filled with "pieces of eight." A piece of eight meant a Spanish coin worth eight reales. My impression is that one reale was worth about a quarter.

A versifier once wrote these high-sounding lines:
"Let Observation, with extensive view, Survey mankind from China to Peru."
Dr. Samuel Johnson said that the actual meaning was, "Let Observation, with extensive observation, observe mankind extensively."

Immediate rise in taxes is urged by leading economists.

Buffaloes Hold Clear Lead in the Border Conference by Defeating Miners at El Paso Saturday Night

KIDD FIELD, El Paso: With a five game win streak in Border Conference competition, the West Texas State Buffaloes pointed for Hardin-Simmons University and their first Border Conference football crown Monday following their 40-12 victory over injury ridden Texas Western Miners here Saturday night.

The Buffs with their Miner victory, clinched a tie for the coveted title which for the past few seasons has been the sole possession of the Texas Tech Red Raiders. But the Buffs are pointing for a victory over the pass conscious Cowboys and clear cut access to the title.

An estimated 8,500 fans were on hand Saturday night as the Buffs licked the Miners.

The Buffs jumped to a 6-0 lead in the first quarter, headed the show with a 20-6 lead at half time. They were held scoreless in the third quarter while the Miners cut the lead six points but then sputtered ahead scoring three straight TD's in the final period.

Little Bill Cross, the Buffs Little All-America candidate saw his yard per carry average drop from a 10.9 yard average to 9.4.

But while the Miners had the Cross running game stopped they couldn't stop him from collecting Gene Mayfield's passes and the little Comet had a heyday in the pass receiving department.

He carried 35 yards following a Mayfield aerial to set up the Buffs first TD. He caught two more in succession just before the half ended to set up the Buff's third touchdown. It was Mayfield, however, who carried the Bison for the first half when it appeared that the Miners had the Buff ground game stopped.

In the first two periods the Buffs were held to a net 76 yards on the ground but Mayfield pitched five completions in seven attempts for 144 yards.

When their ground game started to jell in the fourth period, the Buff backfield trip of Mayfield, Cross and Dunn held more to the byways instead of the airways of Kidd Field and again Mayfield held the spotlight scoring two TD's for the Buffs and bootlegging on three occasions for sizable gains.

The Quitaque flinger completed seven passes of 12 attempts for a total of 177 yards and carried the ball seven times for 59 yards thus accounting for 236 yards of the Buffs 475 yard total.

Charlie "Wire" Wright, the Buffs 190 pound blasting machine, was also bottled up in the early quarters but found running room in the fourth to score two of the Buffs three touchdowns in that period.

Wright handled three of the Buffs TD's. Mayfield scored two and a Mayfield to Joe Spann pass accounted for the other. End Roy Dunn accounted for all four of the Buffs successful conversion attempts.

The Orange and White stayed in the air through most of the game, with Ralph Brewster and Gene Harding doing the pitching. They threw 29 passes, completing only nine and had two intercepted.

Frank Wise, the Buff's long range kicking toe, found the air in El Paso to his liking Saturday night as he got away five good kicks for a 51 yard average. His longest was a 69 yard boomer from deep in his own end zone after the Buffs had been penalized back to their own one yard line.

A Mayfield to Cross aerial set up the first TD on the Miners' 10 and a defensive holding penalty against Texas Western moved the ball to the two where Wright carried over. Dunn's try for point was wide.

The second quarter was only a minute and a half old when the Buffs scored again.

John Spann's short angled kick bounced off the chest of a Miner lineman back to the Buff 38 where Tom Jinks picked up the ball and was thrown on the Buff 34.

Mayfield backed up on the first play and tossed a long strike to Joe Ogden on the Texas Western 13. Cross angled off right tackle to the one and on a quarterback sneak, Mayfield carried over. Dunn kicked the point.

The Miners took the following kickoff and moving 60 yards in eight plays to score. Steel carried from the West Texas three to score. Jim Davis try for point was wide and the Buffs led 13-6.

Late in the half C. H. Keeton, Buff end, recovered a Miner fumble on the midfield stripe with less than 30 seconds left in the half.

Mayfield completed a pass to Cross that carried to the 20. Another pass to Cross went to the Miner 10 and as the clock ran out Mayfield completed his third pass in a row, this one going to Joe Spann all alone in the end zone. Dunn's kick was good and the Buffs led 20-6 at the half.

West Texas marked up only six first downs in the first half, two rushing and four passing while the Miners were collecting seven.

The Buffs couldn't scratch in the third quarter while the Miners were racking up one. It came early in the period with the Miners taking the kickoff on their own 26 and moving 74 yards to score.

With McCraw in the workhorse slot they carried to the Buff 34 where Harding threw to Bill McWilliams who displayed a beautiful piece of broken field running to score untouched. Davis again missed the kick.

But what the Buffs lacked in the third period they made up for in the fourth.

Their next drive started late in the third after John Connell, Miner end kicked out on the Buff six. They moved 94 yards to score.

Wright started it by plowing 17 yards through center to the 23 to get the maroon and white out of danger. Then they marched, racking up five first downs on the trip. At the five Mayfield skirted right end on a bootleg to score by inches. Dunn kicked wide and the Bison led 26-12.

They scored again midway in the third period this time moving 91 yards to tally. Wright and Cross lugged to the Western two where Wright blasted over satnding up. Dunn's first kick was blocked but Texas Western was offside and he converted on the second try.

The Miners took solely to the air in the final minutes but couldn't connect. West Texas took over on their own 47 for their final TD march. Wright carried the final 17 yards and Dunn kicked good for the final score 40-12.

Transplanted Slavs To Present Concert In College Auditorium

Though all of the Don Cossack Singers are now U. S. citizens, they retain many of their 'old world' customs. In their dancing scenes they wear costumes just like those worn in Slavic countries today. Above is a scene from one of their appearances.

The original Don Cossack Chorus and Dancers, who sing here November 17, at 8 o'clock in the Main Auditorium, know as much about America's "purple mountain majesty" and "fruited plains" as National Geographic, plus many things that magazines do not report. The boot-and-bloused Don Cossacks hit road every September and jack-rabbit back and forth across the United States and Canada until spring. In 1921 the chorus of giant singers exchanged the traditional steed of the steppes for train and bus and have since covered more than two million miles of highway and byway from Tallahassee to Vancouver.

By the time World War II forced them onto trains, and many of them into the armed forces, they have learned the first name of every hot-dog stand owner west of the Mississippi; were the favorites of hotel clerks everywhere; and had traded recipes with bartenders at oases from the Atlantic to the Pacific. Busses often ask them for road directions.

At relief stops, the Cossacks would pile out of their gypsy van to smoke and stretch. Many an American countryside lifted its landscaped eyebrow at sight of a couple of Siberian titans, stripped to the waist, cavorting in a "kazatski" to the tune of a concertina.

Their peregrinations took them into regions where Bourbon was the only available refreshment. Many of them have since switched their Slavic taste to what they affectionately call "Kentucky vodka."

Under Tom-Thumb director Serge Jaroff, the Original Don Cossack Chorus and Dancers are currently on their 21st anniversary U. S. tour, during which they will travel 40,000 miles.

Their appearance on the Campus of West Texas State is under the auspices of the WT Special Programs Committee.

HAPPY REUNION

Just returned from summer camp. Willie was enthusiastically describing the many diverting projects in which he had participated.

Mother smiled indulgently. "I guess after all, dear, you were rather glad to get back home, weren't you?" she ventured.

"Well not 'specially," the youngster rejoined. "But some of the fellows were—that had dogs."

A farm lad who took a job in the big city returned home a few months later to report he was flat broke in spite of the big pay. He said, "Most of my money I spent on women and whiskey. The rest I just wasted."

What we can't understand is how nature takes care of things, even though they may happen years and years later. For instance, look how our nose and ears are located, just to hold spectacles.

A lot of people are late for church because they have to change attire; and a lot of others because they have to change a dollar.

Soldiers back from New Guinea report having seen tribes of wild women without tongues. No wonder they were wild!

In this great country you can still get all you want from the best filling station in the world—your own dining room.

The trouble with most of us is that our necessities are too luxurious and our luxuries are too necessary.

Before investing in a going concern, make sure you know which way it's going.

The car's speedometer doesn't always reveal how far a couple has gone.

Newsprint Shortage Is Bunch of Hooey Says Salesman

A paper salesman was in the News office the other day. He said that this paper shortage was a bunch of baloney, as there was plenty of newsprint on the market!

The catch is that the black market has a corner on all surplus, and the price runs from $250 to $300 per ton! The average price of newsprint, such as the Canyon News uses costs about $120 per ton, when you can get it. The salesman said that all surplus was bought up when the Korean war started. The big dailies, which use rolled print are going to suffer the greatest increase in price.

Eric Johnstone, film executive: "We must ditch the shabby habit of trying to remake the Asian people—or any other people—in our image."

Louis Johnson, former Secretary of Defense: "Years and years of preparedness to avoid war, if successful, are vastly preferable to a single year of unlimited war."
